308.00 ELEMENTARY SCHOOL SUPERVISION

In cases where an elementary principal must be absent from the building, the principal shall notify a teacher or some other responsible person where he or she may be contacted. Each elementary principal shall designate another elementary principal to be called if he or she cannot be reached in case of emergency. In the event that neither the principal nor the back-up principal can be reached in an emergency, the director of elementary curriculum and instruction should be called.
